

ALERT LEVELS

Level 1 - Total Domestic Conflict; highest alert rating. Evacuate by most expedient route possible, and assemble at designed rally points. Unit commanders will give further directions as needed

Level 2 - Credible Threat: Be ready to move on 1/2 hour (30 minutes) notice. If possible, be prepared to pre-evacuate immediate family members and their personal gear. Maintain close contact with your immediate chain of command and team members.

Level 3 - Potential Threat: Maintain your gear in a state of readiness. All members stay in weekly contact with Team Leaders. Check your exit routes. Develop your own supply caches along your routes. Keep your lines of communication open for incoming "flash" traffic.

Level 4 - Minimal Threat: All equipment packed and available. Plan routes to your initial rally point. Make yourself available for routine communication.

Level 5 (green) - Standby...All clear and normal.
